

"Love and Respect" Seminar"

...based on the book by Emmerson Eggeriches

This features a 6 session video presentation for couples describing the importance of love and respect in marriage while highlighting the differences between males and females in communication styles and approaches. It also emphasizes the spiritual component in making a marriage strong and lasting. The seminar includes a couple's workbook which follows the course of the video, as well as offering exercises for the couple to try at home. This seminar can be taught in 6 sessions over the course of a weekend or on a weekly basis for 6 weeks. The seminar can be done in large or small group settings.
