

“The People Map”

The Peoplemap is a powerful, but fun and practical, down-to-earth learning program. The Peoplemap facilitates communications within a system by identification of people’s character traits, their strengths and weaknesses, and solutions to strengthen existing teams. The Peoplemap is a great way to enhance personal understanding and interpersonal relationships. Participants understand themselves better, while developing a new appreciation for other personality types. They leave the workshop with useable skills they can apply immediately. The Peoplemap is a proven system provided by a Peoplemap certified trainer. This interactive presentation is fun, energizing, and fosters team work including increased productivity. There is no fancy jargon – just straight forward ideas that equip people to relate to others more effectively. This is a great staff development tool. This can be used in the workplace or any organization where interpersonal relationships are important in fulfilling its mission.
